

Three Marys, Henry Ossawa Turner. 1910. Public Domain

Thought for the Day

Which way are you looking? Mary Magdalene is focused on Jesus' tomb.

All her hopes, her dreams have been destroyed.

How could it be that the Messiah, the Saviour, be crucified, dead and buried?

Sometimes our hopes and dreams for our lives, for the lives of others, for our world, can seem dead and buried.

Believing, believing that God has not abandoned us, that the God who came to us as Emmanuel – God with us – is still with us, believing, trusting, waiting – how difficult this can be.