

rain falls on both the righteous and the wicked.

If you love only those who love you, what reward will you receive?

Do not even tax collectors do the same?

And if you greet only your brethren, what about that is so extraordinary?

Even the pagans do as much.

Therefore, strive to be perfect, just as your heavenly Father is perfect."

Photo: Ankur Sharma

Thought for the Day

Luckily the Lord doesn't ask us to like our enemy, only to love them.

The difference? As St Ignatius of Loyola says in his Spiritual Exercises, love is shown more in deeds rather than words. To love we have to treat the other with respect and kindness. With luck, this will break down enmity.

Is there anyone in my life that I should try to love, but who I find it difficult to love?